MUSGRAVE A RIDING STAR.

PILOTS FOUR WINNERS AT AQUEDUCT AND IS ATTRACTING MUCH ATTENTION.

James B. Brady Takes the Rockaway Stakes in Fast Run Race-Samuel H. Harris a Surprise-Zienap Wins Again.

New York, April 24.-Jockey Philip Musgrave was the particular feature of today's racing at Aqueduct. This greatly improved rider, after being unplaced on Greeno in the opening race took second place with Warden in the second, and then rode the four other winners. His riding was -gilt-edged. although he undoubtedly had the best borses. But this detracted nothing from the lad's skillful riding. His coolness was especially noticeable on James B. Brady in the Rockaway Stakes. A furlong out the others seemed to be gaining on Brady, Musgrave did not become the least bit excited and by skillful hand riding brought his mount on to an easy victory. His hand-riding ability is in fact his strong point, and just now he is a worthy rival of his more experienced opponent, Shaw.

Musgrave, who comes from Shawneetown, Illi nois, is under contract to Phil T. Chinn. He leads the riders at the meeting with thirteen victories. six of which were earned in stakes. Musgrave's apprentice allowance expired one month ago. was one of the turf folk stung by the failure of the Knickerbocker Trust Company last fall. Although he had not then come into prominence nor into his money-earning capacity of the present, he had saved several thousand dollars, which he had banked

A first-rate card was offered today, the best of the meeting, in fact, but it was spoiled by some scratches. The Rockaway Stakes was reduced to four starters, but was a good betting race. B. Brady and Hyperion II. were, equal favorites and heavily backed, while Don Enrique and Fleming also had considerable following. It was James B. Brady's race all the way, and though challenged gamely when a furlong out by Hyperton II., came away to win easily. He seems to have developed into a very serviceable sprinter. Don Enrique probably was short. He moved up fast in the stretch but tired, and improvement may follow this

Run at seven furlongs from 1900 to 1903 inclusive. Zienap caused general surprise by taking up 114 pounds and winning the handicap at one mile. The mare had never shown an inclination to carry much weight, and close followers of form accorded small chances. There was a great rush to back Zethus on the report of fast work, coupled with his light impost, and he went to the post a to 2 favorite. Musgrave got Zienap away front and she led throughout, winning by a length. although tiring at the end. Berkeley might have beaten her but for the fact that the saddle slipped back on his quarters and his rider was of little help to him. Cressina, the top weight and opening favorite, quit at six furlongs and can hardly be Musgrave scored a lucky win on E. R. Bradley's Blacksheep in the fifth race. Harcourt got in some sort of trouble at the start and in the first quarter was back by himself fully thirty lengths behind the leader, while Blacksheep was always well to the It appeared hopeless for Shilling to try to overtake the others with Harcourt, but the colt gained ground steadily to the stretch, where he came with a great rush to finish second. With good racing luck he would have been a sure winner.

F. A. Forsythe kept up his winning gait by taking the closing race with Robert Cooper, brother, to Montgomery. Robert Cooper was a disappointment last year, but gives every indication of making amends this season. He has developed well and is a splendid looking three-year-old. made the non-winners opposed to him today look cheap and won like a good colt.

ingle Stone, which was a top-notch two-year-old plater last year, made his first appearance of the season in the fifth race, but tired after going a He looked high and as there support for him he may be expected to do better

Layers have been asked by the Pinkertons to request the clerks to not transact business, such balancing up their sheets and cash, in homegoing race trains. This has been a regular custo here for years and has become a nuisance which should have been stopped long ago. While only request it is pretty sure to be obeyed to the as there are too few books doing business for the clerks to take chances on losing their jobs by disregarding the notice.

CLOSE FINISHES IN PIMLICO RACING. GOING AGAIN FAST AT OAKLAND TRACK.

Tellfare Wins the Steeplechase-Two Races Fall to the Walden Horses.

Baltimore, Md., April 24.-The Elkridge Steeplechase for hunters over the two-mile course, was the attraction at Pimlico this afternoon and helped draw out a large crowd to the Maryland Jockey Club course. Several gentlemen riders had mounts in the race, among them Mr. J. J. O'Brien and Mr. Courtland Smith, who came over from New York to ride the Hampton Stable entry, My Grace and Pete Dailey, and Mr. J. Tucker, of Philadelphia, who had the mount on Recruit. Eight horses started and seven finished, Tellfare, favorite in the betting, winning in runaway fashion.

The weather conditions could not well have been improved on and a majority of the races were keenly contested with short heads separating the first two in three of the finishes. Jockey McCahey won two races and was beaten a head in another when Servile finished in front of Ivanhoe. Well-backed horses and the layers had one of the worst days they ever experienced here. Robert Walden sent two winners to the post during the afternoon Cunning, which won the first race, and Belle of Jessamine, which captured the closing one

The Shaughraun and Simple Honours, which wor on the opening day, came back again today and each added another victory to his credit.

In the seventh race Brookdale, well backed by his people, broke his leg below the ankle just as the finishing mark was reached, and had to be destroyed.

Congressman J. L. Rhinock and Ollie James were visitors at the course this afternoon. Mr. A. Henry Higginson, who races under the nom de course of Mr. Chetland, came over from Boston to see his entry, Ardwell, run in the Elkridge hunters' race. Jockey B. Rollins, who had the mount on Lawless in the sixth race, was suspended by the starter for ten days.

Maurice Welsh purchased the three-year-old, Prefrom Mart Demorest this morning, the price paid being $500.

Dion Kerr added Rio Grande to his string today. He purchased the norse of A. L. Matthews and will make a jumper of him. Mr. Kerr was to have ridden Monte Carlo in the Baltimore Cup race tomor row, but he will instead have the mount on his new purchase.

Some of the riders in the cup race tomorrow are: Mr. Tommy Wright, on James Crawford; Mr. Taylor on Marksman; Dr. M. P. Hill on I Am Trying, and Mr. J. Tucker on Simple Honours.

CALIFORNIA'S LEADING STABLE.

Thomas H. Williams, president of the California Jockey Club, now owns quite an extensive stable, beginning the year with twenty-nine racers in his ession, with the high-class colt, Firestone, best of the band. A select draft from the stable is to sent east shortly, with Firestone at the head. last year on the first day of the Sheenshead Ray meeting this colt won the first half of the Double Event, giving Chapultepec five pounds and a two-lengths' beating. He was cut down badly in the running of the second half of the same rich event and had to be retired for a long time. s said to have grown and throve famously in California through the past winter, and great hopes are entertained in his behalf when pitted against the erack three-year-olds of this year. The horses in the Williams string are:

FEMININE OWNERS IN ENGLAND.

A few years ago it was exceptional to find a lady who took a practical interest in horse racing, but, thanks to the arrangements that have been madby race course executives for their comfort, this has recently been altered, and not only do ladies attend the various meetings in large numbers, but several of them own race horses and delight to see their colors carried. Two of the races at Derby April 9 were won by ladies, Lady Walker taking the Derbyshire Plate with Eurotas, and Mrs. Loates the Highfield Selling Plate with Mendelssohn, while in the Osmaston Plate Lady de Bathe's representative, Dissolute, was only beaten by a head.

Miller's Riding the Real Feature of an Afternoo of Excellent Racing.

Oakland, Cal., April 24.-With the return of good weather and a fast track the usual normal at tendance of from five to seven thousand race-g was again in evidence at the beautiful Oakland race course to see the running of an excellent Friday card of six races. Six good juveniles, including Traffic, Mauretania, Bill Eaton, Woodlander, Stone and Lady Rensselaer, had the honor of con testing for the most valuable purse programmed, the Ocean View Handicap at four and a half furlong Traffic made good in such convincing style that everybody harked back to the two very bad races that Kansas Price's Cesarion colt ran before his sudden transition into a horse of his present high form.

Walter Miller's horsemanship was the outstanding feature of the afternoon's sport. The crack jockey cored on two favorites at lucrative odds, Luretta and Martinmas, and an outsider in Lord Nelson in the closing race over the Futurity Course. Miller's successes on three winning public choices out of six told heavily in favor of the speculatively inclined.

Two horses, Merritt Buxton and Zoe Young, stumbled and threw their jockeys, Manders and Keogh, in the first race, and what looked like bad series of accidents turned out fortunately with-out anything more serious than a bruised hip for Manders and a shaking up for Keogh. Both lads were, however, incapacitated for riding afterwards

H. R. Schaffer claimed Tayora out of the fifth race for $985.

William Walker has entered his two cracks. Stan-Fay and Edwin Gum, in the Montreal Jockey Club June meeting's principal stakes.

John O. Keene will sell Boas, Wuerzburger, Jeremiah, On Parole, Novgorod, Intonation, Triumphant and Queen Whims at auction tomorrow in the Oakland paddock. H. G. Bedwell will also dispose of Laughrey, Fulletta, Senator Warner, Big Store, Mattie H. and Monaco Maid at the same time.

A race is proposed for next Wednesday which is intended to decide for good which of the speed marvels is to be considered the leader here this The distance will be six furlongs, and the competitors may be Lisaro, Gemmell, Sugarmaid, Jack Nunnally and Pajaroita. All will carry 105 pounds with the exception of Pajaroita, which will be let in at five pounds less. Race-goers hope that the affair will take place and expect it to be one of the best cards of the season

Jockey Joseph McBride, who was set down at Santa Anita, has been reinstated and will soon be seen in the saddle here.

Joseph Dinkelspiel, who recently claimed Booge Red out of a race, has sold him to Jack Brannon. Bedwell and Cahill have engaged Walter Miller to ride their prospective starters next week. Jockey Joe McBride has received permission to ac-ept mounts here.

Booger Red was acquired before the first race today by J. H. Brannon in consideration of $1,800 Frank Doss intends to race at the coming Denver meeting.

Onatassa broke down in the last race. Fannie Louise, the noted broodmare, is dead. Miss Officious threw out a stifle in her last race

THINKS NEW YORK RACING IS SAFE.

While on a visit to Millstream Stud, near Lexington, Ky., a few days ago to inspect his horses there, Andrew Miller said:

'This country at this time of the year is simply grand, and our horses-well, we are glad that we did not sell out the stud last fall, even though Governor Hughes is trying his level best the grand sport of racing. Do I think he will suc Hardly. He has played his strongest cards against us, and it is not to be expected that a spe cial session of the legislature will do more than was done at the regular session.

"His utterances since the voting on the mean in the senate have made him no friends among the senators who opposed the bill, and there is a chance that some who voted for the Agnew bill rather mor because of a feeling that their support should be given to the governor for personal or political rea sons than because of genuine opposition to the been conducted for twelve years under the Percy-Gray law, will desert him if there is to be another vote. In holding mass meetings it is my opinion that he has lost rather than gained.'

JOCKEY RIGBY REPORTED DEAD.

According to the Sport-Welt, Rigby, the American jockey, who came over when the Sloan fever was at its height, and rode very successfully for the Chamant Stable during the racing career of M. Albert Menier, has died in Russia. He Hungary and Austria and was seen more than one in public in Germany. American jockeys will not at a premium in Germany, since Lewis, riding in 1906 in Austria and Hungary, and then accepting an engagement to ride for Baron Oppenheim and Mr. Haniel, has left his two masters in the lurch.-London Sportsman.

RAIN MARS AT LEXINGTON.

DOWNPOUR CAUSES WITHDRAWALS, BUT AT-TENDANCE IS NOT AFFECTED SERIOUSLY.

Ed Kane Wins the Main Race of the Day-Direct Runs in Improving Form-Quagga Defeats Mortibov.

Lexington, Ky., April 24 .- A steady rain that drove through the grandstand and betting ring made today's session at the Lexington track a rather dismal set of proceedings. For once the local enthusiasts were not much deterred by unfavorable conditions, and the attendance was about up to that of yesterday, while reports from the ring were to the effect that the betting was heavier than on the preceding day, with the balance largely in favor of the layers.

The usual quota of daily good things was passed around, and, unlike on former occasions, several made good. The best-backed winner of the afterproved to be Natasha, in the second race. This filly had been out-working everything at the course in trials and her opening price was pounded down steadily. Natasha won because the best she had to beat was the long-priced Lizzie McLean, and to do that she had to wear down a long lead the latter opened in the early running.

Ed Kane was another medium of a betting coup. He had to be much the best to win, as his incom petent rider messed him about and barely managed hang on long enough to get him home in front. Jockey Lee's vigorous handling of Direct, in contrast to his previous effort on the same colt, worked a marked change in his running, and he made a show of his opponents in the opening race by taking a long lead, which he retained to the end.

Scratches reduced the starters in the second race to a small number, and Hasty Aghes showed by her running that she far outclassed the others, Whisk Broom taking second place from La Souer.

Inela gained a long lead at the start for the fifth ace and her advantage assured her easy victory.

Quagga, under a change of riders from Ellenor to Lee, ran like a different horse and never allowed Mortiboy and Plantland to get near him, winning in the commonest kind of a canter.

There was some excitement at the track before race time when news was received that the Phoenix Hotel was threatened with destruction by fire. Most of the visiting horsemen are stopping at the hostelry and they made haste from the track in an effort to save their belongings. The fire was small affair and quickly put out by the fire fighters with little damage to the hotel.

Bill Herron, which has been considered to have a chance to land the Kentucky Derby, showed by his performance today that he cannot be seriously considered as a winner of the big race.

Thirteen bookmakers again drew in for the next The same set of layers that operated during the first two days were in line.

CHAPULTEPEC'S BAND OF STABLE COMRADES.

Burlew & O'Neill, now racing under the name of the B. & O. Stable, have many more horses than the select string headed by Chapultepec and Angelus that were raced at New Orleans last winter. For instance, they began the year in ownership of twenty-five two--year-olds, few of which have gone to the post. Rumor has it that some extra speedy ones are in this band of youngsters. The greater meetings to come will bring about their debut. The gelding, Hoyle, from this stable, gave sample of the quality of its two-year-olds at Aqueduct a few days ago when he ran four and a half furlongs in 52 seconds and set a new track record.
